Zuppa Toscana

Ingredients

- 1 lb ground spicy Italian sausage (mild can be substituted)
- 8 slices bacon, diced
- 1 medium yellow onion, peeled and diced
- 2 cloves garlic minced
- 2 Tbsp flour (cornstarch can be substituted)
- 32 oz chicken stock
- 4 large russet potatoes, peeled and diced into 1/2 inch pieces
- 1 cup heavy cream
- 1/2 bunch kale (a couple of handfuls) de-stemmed and torn into bite sized pieces
- Salt and pepper, to taste
- Pinch of red pepper flakes, optional

Process

Heat a large dutch oven or heavy bottomed soup pot over MED-HIGH heat. Add a small drizzle of oil, then brown sausage, crumbling as it cooks. Drain well, then remove to a plate.

Fry bacon in residual sausage grease until crisp, then remove to plate with the sausage. Drain all but 1 - 1 1/2 Tbsp of bacon grease.

Add onion to pot and cook 5 minutes, adding garlic the last minute.

Sprinkle flour over onion and garlic in pot, then stir to combine. Pour in chicken stock, stirring as you pour. Add in potatoes and bring to a boil.

Gently boil about 15 minutes, or until potatoes are fork-tender. Add in cooked sausage, bacon, heavy cream and kale. Stir and cook 5-10 minutes until kale is wilted.

Taste and season with salt, pepper and red pepper flakes as desired.

Crockpot Process

Heat large skillet over medium high heat and brown sausage. Drain.

Fry bacon and set aside to a plate.

Add onion and minced garlic and cook slightly.

Add sausage, onion and garlic to the bottom of slow cooker.

Add peeled potatoes, cover with chicken stock and water (if necessary) to completely cover potatoes and sausage.

Cover and cook on LOW for 5-6 hours or HIGH for 3-4 (potatoes should be soft)

Before serving, whisk together heavy cream and cornstarch or flour until well mixed. Pour into slow cooker, add kale and stir to combine.

Cover and cook on HIGH for 30 minutes until soup has thickened slightly.

Taste, season according to your tastes, and serve.
